

Terms and Conditions

Payment: All course fees must be paid prior to any in-water training. You have one year to complete your certification. All payments expire one year from date of purchase. Your course fee and payments are non-refundable.

Required Equipment <http://scubanashville.com/dive-gear>

First Pool Session: Scuba Nashville provides all required scuba gear including mask fins and snorkel for your first pool session. You may try on our sample masks in the pool. Try on several masks for correct fit before you buy one. We discourage purchasing gear online due to not all gear is proper for diving and it is best to try on your own mask. You agree to reimburse SCUBA Nashville for loss or breakage due to your negligence.

Second Pool Session: You are required at a minimum to have your own mask, fins, and snorkel set for your second pool session, and quarry dives.

We sell gear to our students at a great discount, and we will beat or match most internet prices.

Required Skills: SCUBA Nashville's Instructors, Divemasters, and staff will make every effort to help you master the required skills for your certification. We want you to become a safe comfortable happy diver. Training skills and requirements are performance based. Your instructor must be satisfied that you can safely, repeatedly, and comfortably perform the required skills for your certification course. Please don't wait until the last minute. Some students require a little more time. Two pool sessions are included, addition sessions if needed cost $25 per session.

Private Session: Pool or quarry sessions with 5 students or fewer will be considered a private session.

Private pool training or check-out dives cost $200 per session +$25 per person.

You may view the Roster on our website. <https://scubanashville.com/roster>

Students under age 18: A parent or legal guardian must be onsite during the confined water (pool) training and open water dives. Student divers who are younger than 15 may earn their Junior Open Water Diver certification, which they may upgrade to Open Water Diver certification upon reaching 15. Minimum Age 10 Years old. (Junior Certification) A parent or guardian must take course with students under 13 years of age.

Reschedule & No-Show Fee: You may reschedule as often as is necessary. If you need to reschedule, please notify us by email at least 24 hours before your scheduled session. There will be a NO-Show Failure to Attend fee of $25 for each classroom missed, and a $50/$100 NO-Show Failure to Attend fee for not showing up or failing to notify us within 24 hours of your pool or quarry session. Schedule your training as close together as possible. Divers must schedule pool or quarry training sessions within 60 days of each session. If you wait longer than 60 days between your in-water training, you will be required to pay for a $100 start over/refresher fee to continue your training.

First No-Show/Failure to Attend results in $50 fee.

Second No-Show/Failure to Notify or Attend results in $100 fee.

Third No-Show/Failure to Notify or Attend results in cancelation of course and forfeiture of all paid fees.

No Show fees must be paid before you schedule your next session.

Late Arrivals: We start classes on time. If you arrive late and we have already started the class, you will be considered a No-Show. You will not be allowed to join a class which is already in progress. You will have to reschedule.

Please be considerate. We cannot restart the class for students who arrive late.

Please check the roster for current updated times to confirm your start time.

You must be on the roster to attend. Our pool sessions fill up a week or two in advance. You must see your name on the roster and confirm your scheduled time. Please don't wait until the last minute to complete your training. Allow time for rescheduling due to weather, health, full rosters or other issues. Scuba Certification is not guaranteed. Some students may require more than 2 pool sessions. We will make every effort to get you certified.

Please sign and date acknowledging that you understand and agree to these terms.
